BETTLES RETIRES AFTER MANY YEARS' SERVICE

Following the announcement of the resignation of Lafayette Hanchett, for a number of years general manager of the Boston Consolidated interests, comes the definite information of the retiring of A. J. Bettles, metallurgical engineer and mill manager for the same company from its infancy. Mr. Bettles, whose ability and faithfulness is unquestioned, was offered a permanent position with the Utah Copper company, following the completion of the merger, but having accumulated a fortune, so far as worldly affairs go, and having a number of personal interests which require considerable attention, he declined Manager Jackling's offer, and expressed his intention of devoting most of his time to private matters.

Mr. Bettles was the constructing engition of devoting most or his constructing engi-vate matters.

Mr. Bettles was the constructing engi-near on the Boston Consolidated mill, but though this plant was his last and one of his most successful undertakings, he has been in the mining business con-tinuously for twenty-six years, and through his long service and expert knowledge has gained a high standing among the mining fraternity of the

GOLD CIRCLE CAMP ONE OF MUCH MERIT

Hauling Arrangements Will Be Made.

There is some talk now of the probathe Gold Circle district, to the line of the Southern Pacific road. The nearest railroad station now is Golconda, on the Southern Pacific, forty-eight miles distant, and it is the encouraging developments of the Gold Circle properties that have demonstrated that a branch road could very probably be operated at a profit, when the camp starts the production which it now promises.

S. M. Levy of this city, who has, some interests in the camp, visited in the district recently, and expressed himself as being very much surprised with recent developments. Since that time some later discoveries have been made, especially at the Beauty Hill prospect and at the Poorman lease.

From the shaft on Beauty hill, a random sample taken from across the lead for three and one-half feet gave an 23-say return of over $80 per ton, and on the Poorman lease a sample from the rich streak, one to four inches thick, taken for about ten feet along the lead, ran nearly $2000 a ton. The properties from which these samples were taken are included in the Sleeping Beauty and Queen groups.

Rex Mill Ready.

Rex Mill Ready.

Rex Mill Ready.

The Rex mill, which was completed despite the severe winter weather which has been prevalent at the camp for several months, is said to be a model of perfection, and has been given its preliminary tryout prior to being commissioned regularly on the treatment of the rich milling ores of the Rex property.

From Golconda, the nearest railroad point to Midas, the grade is said to be but slight, and it will be an easy matter, it is said, to select an admirable railroad route between the two, if developments at Gold Circle are such as to warrant the building of a branch for the purpose of offering an outlet to the district's ore production.

Stiff neck is caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the neck. It is usually confined to one side, or to the back of the neck and one side. While it is often quite painful, quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires internal treatment. When there is no fever and no swelling as in muscular and chronic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Liniment will accomplish more than any internal treatment. For sale by all druggists.
